Guidelines for Expressions of Interest

What is an expression of interest (EOI) sale campaign?

An Expression of Interest (EOI) campaign is a structured private sale method where interested buyers are invited to formally register their interest in a property, typically by a specified closing date (unless sold prior). Unlike an auction, there is no public bidding process. Submissions are confidential and the vendor reviews all interest before deciding how to proceed.

What is an EOI Registration form?

An EOI Registration Form allows a prospective purchaser to formally notify the agent of their interest in the property.

Important:

- It is not a contract.
- It is not a legally binding offer, unless expressly stated.
- It is used as a reference point for possible negotiations.
- It is submitted on a no-obligation basis.

Key Things to Know

1. Negotiation Framework Only

An EOI campaign is a negotiation process that may lead to a sale. Submitting an EOI does not create a binding agreement.

2. Vendor Discretion

The vendor:

- Is not obliged to accept any EOI.
- May negotiate with one, multiple, or no parties.
- May accept an offer prior to the closing date.
- Has the final decision on whether and to whom the property is sold.

The highest submission is not automatically accepted.

3. Purchaser Flexibility

A person submitting an EOI may:

- Withdraw prior to signing a Contract of Sale.
- Choose not to proceed without penalty (unless otherwise agreed in writing).

4. When is the Property Sold?

A property is only legally sold when:

- A formal Contract of Sale is signed by both parties;
- A compliant Section 32 Vendor Statement (under the Sale of Land Act 1962 (Vic)) has been provided; and
- Contracts have been exchanged.

Until then, no legally binding sale exists.

5. Fair Trading & Compliance

Goldfish Real Estate conducts EOI campaigns in accordance with:

- Victorian consumer protection laws,
- Australian Consumer Law (misleading or deceptive conduct provisions),
- Professional conduct obligations under the Estate Agents Act 1980 (Vic).

We are committed to transparency, accurate representation, and ethical negotiation practices.

6. Privacy & Information Handling

Personal information collected during an EOI campaign is managed in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and Australian Privacy Principles.

Information is used solely for purposes directly related to the sale process and regulatory compliance.

Our Commitment

At Goldfish Real Estate, our EOI campaigns are designed to provide a structured, fair and respectful process for both vendors and purchasers.

We encourage all interested parties to undertake independent due diligence and obtain legal advice prior to entering into a Contract of Sale.
